STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. At all relevant times herein, plaintiffs Stephen Riquelme and Karen Famiglietti resided together in an apartment located at 510 East 82nd Street, in Kings County, New York (the “premises”).

19. On April 11, 2012 at approximately 3:30 am, plaintiffs were lawfully present and asleep inside the premises when Defendants POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH WAGNER, POLICE OFFICER NICHOLAS CORRADO, POLICE OFFICER SHERLON CROMWELL, POLICE SERGEANT JOSEPH NICOTRA, POLICE OFFICER PAUL PALAZZO, POLICE CAPTAIN RICHARD DIBLASIO (TAX 892301), and JOHN DOE kicked in or otherwise loudly and forcibly broke through the front door of the apartment.

20. Brandishing their guns, the defendants detained, and assaulted both of the plaintiffs.

21. Although there was no legal basis to detain or seize the plaintiffs, they were then arrested or otherwise detained by the defendants who then searched the premises.

22. The defendants were not invited into the premises, nor was their entry consented to by either of the plaintiffs, or any other individual authorized to so consent.
23. There were no exigent circumstances present that would permit the defendants to enter the premises absent a warrant or invitation.
24. The defendants did not display a warrant to justify their entry into the premises and refused to produce one after the plaintiffs asked.
25. If indeed a warrant had issued, it could only have been procured on false or otherwise misleading information as none of the residents of the apartment had engaged in any conduct that would have constituted probable cause for the issuance of a warrant to enter or search the premises.
26. The plaintiffs were not engaged in any suspicious or illegal conduct, and complied with defendants' requests at all times.
27. Although there was no legal basis for doing so, the defendants searched plaintiffs' persons and apartment.
28. The search yielded no evidence of gun, drugs, or contraband.
29. Despite the absence of any evidence of wrongdoing in the part of plaintiffs, the defendants continued to assault the plaintiffs and search their home.
30. The plaintiffs were never charged pursuant to the illegal entry, search, and arrest. Rather, the defendants assaulted both plaintiffs and then left the premises without explanation.
31. The plaintiffs called Emergency Medical Services ("EMS") who arrived and transported plaintiffs by ambulance to a local area hospital known as Lutheran Medical Center immediately following the incident to obtain treatment for the injuries they sustained as a result of the defendants' illegal conduct.

32. At least some of the defendants who initially entered the premises returned to the premises when plaintiffs were at the hospital, and conducted a further illegal search.

33. At the hospital, defendant Gaudioso and John Doe, arrived and threatened plaintiffs.

34. At the hospital, these defendants instructed hospital staff and personnel to prevent the plaintiffs from leaving, and ordered unnecessary medical tests to be conducted on plaintiff Karen Riquelme against her will.

35. Plaintiffs were eventually permitted to leave the hospital, and were given no explanation for the unlawful detainment.

36. It was objectively unreasonable for the defendants to detain or use any level of force against the plaintiffs, as there was no evidence that they had engaged in any unlawful conduct.

37. At no time prior to or during the encounter and/or arrest did there exist probable or otherwise sufficient legal cause to arrest, detain, or otherwise seize plaintiffs, nor could the defendants have reasonably believed that such cause existed.

38. At no time did there exist any basis to use any level of force against the plaintiffs, much less the force actually employed, nor could any of the defendants have reasonably believed that such force was reasonable, lawful, appropriate, or necessary.

39. At no time prior to or during the encounter was there sufficient legal cause to believe that plaintiffs were engaged in any unlawful or suspicious activity.

40. At no time did any of the defendants take steps to intervene in, prevent, or otherwise limit the misconduct engaged in by the defendants against plaintiffs.

41. The individual defendants, including the Doe defendant, intentionally and deliberately gave false statements and/or failed to file accurate or corrective statements, or otherwise failed to report the conduct of the defendants who engaged in the misconduct described herein.
42. At all times relevant herein, the defendants were acting within the scope of their employment, and their acts were done in furtherance of the City of New York's interests without legal justification or excuse.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER THE
UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION AND 42 U.S.C. § 1983
BY THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

43. Plaintiffs STEVEN RIQUELME AND KAREN FAMIGLIETTI repeat and reiterate the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.
44. By their conduct and actions in arresting, imprisoning, failing to intercede on behalf of STEVEN RIQUELME AND KAREN FAMIGLIETTI and in failing to protect him from the unjustified and unconstitutional treatment he received at the hands of other defendants, the individual defendants, individually and collectively, acting with animus, and under color of law and without lawful justification, intentionally, maliciously, and with deliberate indifference to or a reckless disregard for the natural and probable consequences of their acts, caused plaintiffs to be unlawfully subjected to excessive and unreasonable force and false arrest, and caused injury and damage in violation of the plaintiffs' constitutional rights as guaranteed under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the United States Constitution, including its Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

45. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were deprived of their liberty, suffered a loss of quality and/or enjoyment of life, economic injury, psychological injury and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER THE
UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION AND 42 U.S.C. § 1983 BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK

46. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as though fully stated herein.

47. At all times material to this complaint, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, acting through its police department, and through defendants, had in effect actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and usages that were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct alleged of the individual defendants.

48. At all times material to this complaint, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK failed to properly train, screen, supervise or discipline its employees and police officers, including defendants, concerning the correct practices in having probable cause and/or reasonable suspicion to detain a person, and then permit detention, inflict abuse and excessive force upon said person, battery and assault and sustain a false arrest, thereby permitting the individual defendants to be in a position to violate plaintiffs' rights.

49. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, being aware that such lack of training, supervision, and discipline leads to improper conduct by its employee police officers, acted with deliberate indifference in failing to establish a program of effective training, supervision and discipline. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK is aware of the persistent and substantial risk of improper and incorrect arrest and detention, and effective training, supervision, and discipline would lessen the likelihood of such occurrences. There are recurrent circumstances which involve such potential danger to the constitutional rights of citizens and which are officially tolerated by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK. Such policies, practices, customs or usages were the direct and proximate cause of the harm to the plaintiffs, in violation of plaintiffs' rights as guaranteed by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

50. Defendant City of New York was responsible for ensuring that reasonable and appropriate levels of supervision were in place within and/or over the NYPD.

51. Defendant had actual or constructive knowledge that there was inadequate supervision over and/or within the NYPD with respect to its members' abuse of their authority, use of excessive force, abuse of arrest powers, and other blatant violations of the United States Constitution and rules and regulations of the NYPD. Despite ample notice of inadequate supervision, defendants took no steps to ensure that reasonable and appropriate levels of supervision were put in place to reasonably ensure that NYPD members engaged in police conduct in a lawful and proper manner, including their use of their authority as law enforcement officers with respect to the general public, including, and specifically, the plaintiffs herein.

52. The defendant City of New York deliberately and intentionally chose not to take action to correct the chronic, systemic, and institutional misuse and abuse of police authority by its NYPD employees, and thereby deliberately and intentionally adopted, condoned, and otherwise created through deliberate inaction and negligent supervision, an NYPD policy, practice, and custom of utilizing illegal and impermissible searches, arrests, detentions, malicious prosecution, and the manufacturing of evidence, in the ordinary course of NYPD business in flagrant disregard of the state and federal constitutions, as well as the Patrol Guide, up to and beyond the plaintiffs' arrests.

53. The aforementioned customs, practices, procedures, and rules of the City and the NYPD are listed below in the following, non-exhaustive list of unconstitutional actions:

- a. Using excessive force on individuals, including but not limited to those who have already been handcuffed;
- b. Failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers and encouraging their misconduct;
- c. Discouraging police officers from reporting the corrupt or unlawful acts of others;
- d. Retaliating against officers who report police misconduct; and
- e. Failing to intervene to prevent the above-mentioned practices when such intervention is reasonably available.

54. The existence of unconstitutional customs and policies, including those detailed herein, may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar unconstitutional, illegal, and wrongful conduct, as documented in numerous civil actions, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Thompson v. City of New York, 10-CV-3603 (ARR) (SMG) (E.D.N.Y.);
- b. Lotorto v. City of New York, 10-CV-1223 (ILG) (JMA) (E.D.N.Y.);
- c. Zabala v. City of New York, 37711/2010 (Sup. Ct. Kings Co.);
- d. Ashe v. City of New York, 09-CV-9216 (AKH) (S.D.N.Y.);

- e. Long v. City of New York, 09-CV-9216 (AKH) (S.D.N.Y.);
- f. Moise v. City of New York, 09-CV-9855 (DC) (JLC) (S.D.N.Y.);
- g. Taylor-Mickens v. City of New York, 09-CV-7923 (RWS) (S.D.N.Y.);
- h. Carmody v. City of New York, 05-CV-8084 (HB), 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 83207;
- i. McMillan v. City of New York, 04-CV-3990 (FB) (RML) (E.D.N.Y.);
- j. Avent v. City of New York, 04-CV-2451 (CBA) (CLP) (E.D.N.Y.).

55. In an Order dated November 25, 2009, in Colon v. City of New York, 09-CV-0008 (E.D.N.Y.), the Hon. Jack B. Weinstein stated:

Informal inquiry by the court and among the judges of this court, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officer of the New York City Police Department. Despite numerous inquiries by commissions and strong reported efforts by the present administration – through selection of candidates for the police force stressing academic and other qualifications, serious training to avoid constitutional violations, and strong disciplinary action within the department – there is some evidence of an attitude among officers that is sufficiently widespread to constitute a custom or policy by the city of the illegal conduct of the kind now charged.

56. As a direct result of defendants' actions, plaintiffs suffered a denial of their federal statutory rights, constitutional rights and privileges. Such deprivations were in violation of the rights secured to plaintiffs, STEVEN RIQUELME AND KAREN FAMIGLIETTI by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution and by Title 42 U.S.C.A § 1983.

57. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were deprived of their liberty, suffered a loss of quality and/or enjoyment of life, economic injury, psychological injury and emotional distress, great humiliation, costs and expenses, and were otherwise damaged and injured.
